

CUB SCOUTS PACK 802

2021-2022 Financial Overview Sheet

This sheet provides an overview of the income and expenses detailed in Pack 802's annual budget including the projected out-of-pocket cost to families. This sheet is a living document and actual costs are subject to change based on the number of scouts registered, event participation, and fundraiser participation. Pack 802 makes scouting accessible to as many families as possible by keeping scout dues below actual costs. The pack spends approximately $75 more per scout each year than what is collected in dues. Our program is heavily dependent on fundraising to cover baseline scout expenses and subsidize event costs for all. Projected out-of-pocket expenses will increase if fundraising goals are not met. Scouts that participate in fundraising can easily earn their own way while collectively supporting the entire Pack!

- Out-of-pocket costs may be significantly reduced or eliminated through fundraising. This year Pack 802 is splitting popcorn sales revenue 50/50 between the unit and the scout. The portion of revenue provided to the scout is reserved in the pack's bank account and can be used to pay for or reimburse any scouting expense described on this sheet. Scouts earn 17.5% of the retail value of popcorn sold face-to-face at show and sells or wagon sales and 15% of the retail value of popcorn sold through online ordering.
